Dear Artists,

We hope that you will join us for one of the favorite fairs in Colorado. Carbondale Mountain Fair celebrates the arts in all forms of expression. Carbondale is an "arts town", and is a central hub of arts activity in the Roaring Fork Valley which stretches from Aspen to Rifle.

The Carbondale Mountain Fair is known for its diverse range of arts and crafts, its non-stop entertainment and, most importantly, its spirit. This is our 40th year, so the celebration will be big! We hope you will be part of it!

General Information

The Carbondale Mountain Fair is celebrating its 40th anniversary. Carbondale Mountain Fair features 130 artisans from around the country, 22 food booths and three days of live music. The fair is an homage to the arts in all expressions. Every year the numbers of fair-goers increase, which is a good sign in these hard times. This year we hope to make it bigger than ever, because it's our 40th. We are opening at noon on Friday, but it is a "soft opening". If you cannot complete setup until 4:00 pm on Friday, we will work with you. Last year, we received such a positive response from the community, we wanted to do it again.

Mountain Fair is a juried show and we are continually looking for the best combination of arts. This year we have added a "Family Area" with lots of interactive, creative experiences, and entertainment and competitions that run the gamut from cake baking to wood splitting and as always.... free admission.
