

Know Your Artist, Know Your Art

Carbondale Arts believes in the power of art and we know you do, too. There is a deep connection that happens when you purchase a piece of art, and getting to know the artist makes that connection even deeper. Carbondale Arts hosts over 10 art exhibitions every year. Find some art you love and dive in.

We have launched a “Know Your Artist, Know Your Art” campaign, as Carbondale Arts works to build relationships between artists and patrons. Inspired by the Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) model of Investing in local food, this Community Supported Art movement promotes the investment of local artists making a living in and around the newly established Carbondale Creative District, where Carbondale Arts makes its home.

HUNTER HOGAN

Artist Statement

Using printed material from design magazines, I cut up pieces and arrange them to make studies for paintings and my process involves interpreting them. My work is about transformation and how things go together. Meaning comes from the energy, color harmony, emotional integrity, and the alchemy of painting. I do not like my work to be too polished and I believe in seeing the hand of the painter to achieve a scruffy romantic elegance.

Acknowledgements

“HELD: What is the Value of the Vulnerable” is generously sponsored by Land+Shelter. Land+Shelter is a local architecture and planning company that seeks to harmonize the built environment with the natural environment and, in so doing, practice sustainable design. We partner with clients to create sustainable, modern architecture that respects the land and enhances community. Land+Shelter provides an integration of architecture, sustainable design, owner’s representation, planning services, and community outreach – since 2005.
